Focus Scripture – John 20:19-31

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Parent has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Holy One of God, and that through believing you may have life in Christ's name.

Announcements

Flowers on the Communion Table – have been given by Enid & Ted Bradley, in celebration of Ted's 75th birthday.

Listening Post will be held TODAY, April 11 – Due to the Easter activities last Sunday, the Listening Post will take place TODAY, after the 10:30 service, in the church office. The Listening Post provides a place where concerns & suggestions of members of our congregation can be discussed and questions posed & answered.

Bread for the World Offering of Letters – will be received on Sunday, April 25. Letters will be available to be signed during the morning hours. Instead of hunger issues, the focus is on the Tax Credits which are expiring this year, in particular, the Earned Income Tax Credit, the Child Tax Credit, and the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance. These programs are a boon to low income families, providing money to help pay for rent and utilities and other necessities which food assistance (WIC and food stamps) cannot do. For those of you who prefer to handwrite your letters (and studies have shown that these letters get the most attention from lawmakers), sample letters are on the table in the hall. Bring them on April 25, and they will be included with the others to be faxed to our congressmen. Please take a look at the posters in the hallway which have information regarding several families who benefit from these programs.
