Focus Scripture – Acts 16:9-15

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony.

We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home."

And she prevailed upon us.

Thank you, Doug, Christa, Val, Kirk, and John! –

It takes a team effort to get most things done in the church, and that is the case for the Offering of Letters we took a couple of weeks ago. I wish to express my appreciation for the following people who helped me get the job done: Doug Crosby who kept the congregation of the 8:30 service informed; the youth in Doug's class who helped recruit signers; Christa Manning who set up the tables; Val Main who ran the copy machine for me; Kirk Wortman for his invaluable fax machine work; and John Davis who kept us company as we worked in the office. Thanks to all. – Kay Main

How can I help?

Can you "do" Hospitality (simple snacks) on a Sunday in JULY, between the 8:30 service and the 10:30 service?

NOTE: In June, July, and August, Hospitality is held on the patio between services, weather permitting. This means that there is only one serving of snacks required each Sunday, which makes Hospitality easier.

Yes, I will do Hospitality in July.
 Carol St John will call you to set up a specific date and answer questions.
